

OPERATION COOKIE TAKEOVER

You are the recipient of cookies from Operation Cookie Takeover. A friend or family member submitted your address to us and a generous volunteer stepped forward to make you cookies. We hope these brighten your day and go a little ways towards expressing our gratitude for your service to our country.

Operation Cookie Takeover was founded in the Spring of 2013 by the members of the cookie decorating forum Cookiers R Us (www.cookiedecorator.com). One of our own deployed to Afghanistan and proposed sending cookies to the soldiers at her forward operating base. We received an overwhelming response from volunteers wanting to send cookies and sent over 10,000 cookies to Afghanistan. Our friend returned from her deployment, but we know there are many service members still deployed. This is the fourth round of Operation Cookie Takeover, sending cookies to soldiers, sailors, airmen, and marines all over the world.

We hope you share these cookies with your friends and coworkers. Please let them know we are thinking about them from back in the United States. We would love to see pictures of you with your cookies, so feel free to post pictures or notes on Facebook page. You can find us at www.facebook.com/operationcookietakeover. We can also be contacted by email at operationcookietakeover@gmail.com.

We hope you enjoy your cookies. Thank you again for your service,

The Operation Cookie Takeover Team
